In Memoriam

King's College lost two beloved colleagues in 2021.

Anne Noone

Anne's 55 years of service to King's was marked by an amazing level of dedication, loyalty and love for the College, its mission, and its students. Anne's work in the President's Office and with the Board of Trustees was marked by a spirit of generosity and affection. Anne loved her work and was loved by those with whom she worked. Among Anne's many duties as Executive Assistant to the President was to plan and execute the Patron's Day celebration.

We dedicate this evening's celebration in her honor.

Dr. Chris Alexander

While Chris graduated from King's College in 1979, he was part of the King's College community from birth. Chris' father, Bob Alexander, served as a Professor of History here at King's, a rank that Chris would merit in 1989 in the McGowan School of Business. Chris taught at King's for 32 years, shaping generations of graduates who will never forget him. In one of his final lectures Chris expressed his hope that each student knew of God's great love and care, and that God expected that each student use the gifts God bestowed to make the world a better place.
