Families Make a Difference!

READING & MATH WORKSHOPS
Tuesday Evenings 6 pm-7:30 pm

Zoom based Presentations

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date</th>
<th>Learning Session Topic &amp; Location</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| March 15, 2022 | Supporting Your Pre-K Reader
Research based practices families can use to help their children become strong readers |
| March 22, 2022 | Supporting Your Pre-K Mathematician
Exploring Mathematics can start early, and families will learn how math is being learned in today’s classrooms |
| March 29, 2022 | Supporting Your K-2 Reader
Practical daily routines and strategies families can use to support their children with reading and reading comprehension |
| April 5, 2022 | Supporting Your K-2 Mathematician
Learn about the new ways math is being taught in the classroom, specific math your child will learn in these grades and how to support and help at home |
| April 12, 2022 | Supporting Your Grade 3-5 Reader
Families learn and practice 7 key strategies to engage their children with reading on a nightly basis at home and become “coaches” who continuously improve their children’s ability to read for deep comprehension |
| April 26, 2022 | Supporting Your Grade 3-5 Mathematician
Families learn the new learning standards teachers are using in today’s math classrooms, the specific learning at each grade level and how to ensure their child’s long-term success |
| May 3, 2022   | Middle School Success
Strategic academic planning for success at the middle school level |
| May 10, 2022  | High School Success
Strategic academic planning for success throughout high school |