

Families Make a Difference!

Parent University's Family Learning Workshops in: READING & MATH WORKSHOPS

Tuesday & Thursday Evenings 6pm-7:30pm

Zoom Based Presentations

Date	Learning Session Topic
Tuesday, Sept. 21,	Supporting Your K-2 Reader Practical daily routines and strategies families can use to support their children with reading and comprehension at these grade levels
Thursday, Sept. 23	Supporting Your K-2 Mathematician Learn about the new ways math is being taught in the classroom, specific math your child will learn in these grades and how to help at home
Tuesday, Sept. 28	Supporting Your Grade 3-5 Reader Families learn 7 strategies to engage their children with reading on a nightly basis at home with a goal of continuously improving their children's ability to deeply understand all they read
Thursday, Sept. 30	Supporting Your Grade 3-5 Mathematician Families learn the new ways their children are being taught mathematics at school, the specific math they will need to master at each grade level and how to help ensure their children's success
Tuesday, October 5	Supporting Your Pre-K Reader Practices, ideas and resources families can use at home to help their children become strong readers
Thursday, Oct. 7	Supporting Your Pre-K Mathematician Exploring Mathematics can start early and families will learn how math is being learned in today's classrooms
Wednesday Sept. 29 / October 6	Middle School Success (Sept. 29) / High School Success (October 6): Strategic planning for success at the middle & high school level