Envisioning Redeemer's Future

We have struggled with the term survey, because it can turn some people off. If you open "Envisioning the Redeemer's Future" you will quickly see that it is for you and about you. We are asking about your ability, your interests, your ideas and your priorities. A lot has changed over the last couple of years and as we come together and plan for the future, this information will help inform the decisions and initiatives of the clergy and the Vestry. It is an invitation to participate—we hope you will. Congratulations to Emily Gibb, who by her timely response, won 4 tickets to the upcoming Mozart Requiem Concert. Second Sunday 4pm

Embodying the Eucharist, (11/14-Burns Hall)
The word Eucharist means "thanksgiving." Join us for an informal Eucharist service. Afterwards we will embody the Eucharist as we prepare meals, bless them, and give them to those whom we are most thankful for.

Stewardship Campaign

Our Stewardship campaign is underway, and we'd be enormously aided by parishioners who'd be willing to contact 4 or 5 families, either by email or telephone, to talk about The Redeemer and the opportunity to support our ministries in the coming year. There is so much good that is coming—the renewal of many things—and we'll be better prepared for them by working together and, thereby, realizing the value of our fellowship and the beauty of contributing to it. If you'd be willing to participate in this, please send an email to Fran Merritt at fmerritt@theredeemer.org.

The Mission of the Church of the Redeemer is to celebrate the love of God in Jesus Christ. As an open and welcoming Episcopal community, we worship, learn and grow together, supporting each other and our world through the generous and creative use of God's gifts.

NEW TO THIS COMMUNITY?

We're glad you're here! We'd like to get to know you. Please sign the guest book on the podium in the Church entrance way or fill out one of the cards in the pew. We will be in touch.

Worshipping in the time of COVID-19.

For in church worship, all are requested to wear masks at all times and practice social distancing using only pews that are unmarked.

Many of us here today were not raised in The Episcopal Church, but have found in this parish a source of spiritual growth. If you might like to join this congregation or come seeking prayer or guidance, please speak to one of the clergy or call the office at 610-525-2486.

For young children, we offer a worship tote bag filled with materials meant to enhance their sense of worship and help them process new prayers, scriptures and hymns. Pick one up in the narthex.

Restrooms are located through the large wooden door halfway down the left side aisle. Baby changing stations are in the handicap restroom off the left side aisle and in the hallway restroom behind the high altar.

CHURCH SCHOOL AND YOUTH MINISTRIES

Lesson for the Day Articles of the Altar

Preschool - Rm 221 (age 3 to Kindergarten)

A big part of today will be focused on a preschoolers' natural willingness to absorb new words. We will introduce the children to the names and functions of the materials present on the altar during the Eucharist (linens, cross, chalice, paten).

Lower Elementary - Rm 215 (grades 1 to 3)

Today we will use a miniature altar to tangibly experience the function of the materials on the altar during the Eucharist. Just as we bring out the "special" plates, linens, etc. during a special family meal, the priests use specific materials each week to prepare the table for Eucharist.

Upper Elementary-Rm 217 (grades 4 thru 7)

Building on our introduction to the Noah narrative two weeks ago, the children will explore God's frustration with human sinfulness and the cleansing power of the floodwaters. We will also reflect on the floodwaters in light of our own Baptism.

Confirmation-Youth Cottage

This week our Confirmation class will continue their exploration of the Nicene Creed. Do we believe all that the Creed affirms? What objections do we have? Is that a problem? Should it be? Join us as we deliberate upon the Creed together.

Redeemer Youth Group-Youth Cottage

RYG will meet by this Sunday from 4-6 pm at the cottage. After some outdoor fun we will have an activity celebrating All Saints and All Souls Days. Please join us!
