Hotter, Wetter, Weirder: Climate Change in Philadelphia

After a summer of record heat waves, droughts, wildfires, and hurricanes, climate change is on everyone's mind and in everyday headlines. How has the climate changed here in Philadelphia? What are the trends-- and what will our weather look like in 2050? What will happen to our rivers, our summers, our airport? You'll be surprised by the data and trends. Mike Weilbacher, the executive director of the Schuylkill Center for Environmental Education and past director of the Lower Merion Conservancy, has been teaching about climate change for 30 years, and assembled this must-see illustrated talk on our coming weather, showing how it will be hotter, wetter, and weirder, weaving science, politics, and pop culture into the talk, all while answering your questions.

Thanksgiving Pie Sale

Choose from Linvilla Orchards: old fashioned apple, strawberry rhubarb, pumpkin, no sugar cherry, pecan, Dutch apple crumb, coconut custard, and Michael Diorio's own famous pumpkin cranberry bread (no nuts!). Orders are due by TOMORROW November 15. Forms are on our website, or you may email your order to Choirpies@gmail.com

Second Sunday at 4pm

Embodying the Eucharist, - Burns Hall)
The word Eucharist means "thanksgiving." We come together each week to pray, eat, and give thanks for all that God has given us. Join us in Burns Hall for an informal Eucharist service. Afterwards we will embody the Eucharist as we prepare meals, bless them, and give them to those whom we are most thankful for. Information? Reach out to Michael Palmisano or Tory Dunkle

Envisioning Redeemer's Future

We have struggled with the term survey, because it can turn some people off. If you open "Envisioning the Redeemer's Future" you will quickly see that it is for you and about you. We are asking about your ability, your interests, your ideas and your priorities. A lot has changed over the last couple of years and as we come together and plan for the future, this information will help inform the decisions and initiatives of the clergy and the Vestry. It is an invitation to participate--we hope you will. Congratulations to Emily Gibb, who by her timely response, won 4 tickets to the Mozart Requiem Concert. Advent Forum Series

November 28 – December 19

Join us on Sundays during the Advent season as we wrestle with the implications of an Incarnate God upon life as we know it. We will be led in discussion by each of our Redeemer clergy and be visited by our keynote presenter Dr. Phillip Cary on Sunday, December 5th.

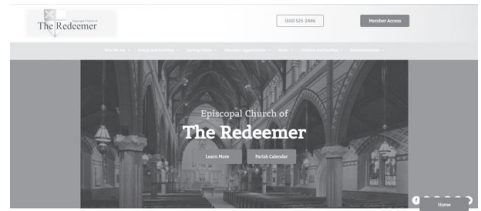

Phil Cary is Professor of Philosophy at Eastern University and Editor-in-chief of Pro Ecclesia: A Journal of Catholic and Evangelical.

Mozart Requiem Video

Last Sunday evening's concert was a grand success and attendance far exceeded our expectations. If you missed it or just want to experience in again, the video is now available on our website and YouTube and Facebook pages.

New Website

Our new website will launch Monday afternoon. We've obtained this new site for free to serve as a marketing example to our host organization. Please be patient as we work out the kinks.

Episcopal Church Club

The Episcopal Church Club of Philadelphia (ECCP) is welcoming new members to restore its membership rolls and services to the Diocese of PA in the wake of the COVID 19 Pandemic. Over the past two years, online Zoom presentations by speakers have replaced luncheons and speakers at the Acorn Club. The 2021–2022 Church Club calendar year will continue to provide scheduled monthly (approx.) presentations by speakers sharing an awareness of religious, civic and national concerns. Members will also have access to archived presentations via the Church Club website. An annual individual membership is $25 and is accessed on the Church Club Website at www.episcopalchurchclub.org. Click on "join us."

DID YOU KNOW

Did you know the Stewardship Committee has a dedicated group of volunteer parishioners who, over the next few weeks, will personally reach out to those who are still thinking about their 2022 Annual Stewardship pledge? We are grateful for these committed volunteers for their important work. If you have not yet indicated a pledge, please prayerfully consider your support, go online (www.TheRedeemer.org/pledge) and register your offering. Submitting your pledge early helps lighten staff and volunteer time to implement this personalized follow up process.

... Now that's Ministry and your Stewardship makes it happen!

See You at the Christmas Village THIS Friday & Saturday

IT'S NOT TOO LATE TO REGISTER for the Silent Auction and purchase Meal/Drink Tickets. Come to the Friday Afternoon Preview and start the bidding fun! Come Friday and Saturday to savor French gourmet food truck cuisine as you stroll through our rain-or-shine outdoor Village! All to benefit Outreach!

Want to help make this a success? We could use volunteers – can you help us? If so – and thank you – please sign up here:

<https://www.signupgenius.com/go/60B0D4CACAC22A2F85-redeemer>

You won't want to miss a thing, so please note the following dates and times.

Friday, November 19 – Parishioner Preview (12 noon – 2:00pm)

Friday, November 19 – Adult Evening in the Christmas Village (6-9:00pm)

- Food and drink offerings from Le Camion, Bon Jour Creperie and 13th Street Cocktails as well as wine and beer offered by Morris & Masterman
- Live music courtesy of the Baldwin B-Flats & the Redeemer Ramblers
- Bid on wonderful Silent Auction items and buy a raffle chance or two!
- Shop Redeemer booths for Trinkets & Treasures, Tasty Treats and Classic Christmas Crafts, and a variety of specialty items offered by outside vendors: Hennese Pottery, Fairhope Graphics, Painted Sky (Alpaca goods), Lisi Lerch, Children's Book World, and Wendt und Kühn (wooden angels crafted in Germany).

Saturday, November 20 – Christmas Village Open for Everyone! (10:00am – 3:00pm)

- Live music courtesy of Orpheus, the Haverford Notables and Double Fault
- Food and drink offerings from Le Camion and the Redeemer Kitchen!

Just for Children! In addition to the shopping listed above, a special tent will provide activities and shopping experiences designed just for you!

Although admission to the Christmas Village is free, advance registration is necessary for bidding in the Silent Auction and highly recommended for Friday evening food and drink. If you do not pre-purchase your meal, there is no guarantee that there will be food available for purchase on Friday evening given the space constraints of the food trucks.

<https://redeemerchristmasvillage.asimobile.net/>

Note that the Church's COVID protocols will be in effect.

Dreams can come true! The Silent Auction catalogue is filling up with dreamy getaways (e.g., Cape Cod house, NYC apartment), timeless jewelry, private tours, baseball and event tickets, and unique travel experiences. The catalogue will be available online and bidding will begin this weekend. Note well that bidding will only occur online – you can even skip the Village and just bid from home (although we hope you don't do that because the Village will be a time for us to come together as a parish after a too long hiatus!).

Thanks for your consideration. Please be in touch with one of the co-chairs to volunteer your time or to arrange to donate or loan items: Elisabeth Cooke elisabeth.c.cooke@me.com 610-654-4328 Caroline Manogue cbmanogue@gmail.com 610-742-9072 Carolyn Morris MissC@comcast.net 610-888-8373.

The Mission of the Church of the Redeemer is to celebrate the love of God in Jesus Christ. As an open and welcoming Episcopal community, we worship, learn and grow together, supporting each other and our world through the generous and creative use of God's gifts.

NEW TO THIS COMMUNITY?

We're glad you're here! We'd like to get to know you. Please sign the guest book on the podium in the Church entrance way or fill out one of the cards in the pew. We will be in touch.

Worshipping in the time of COVID-19.

For in church worship, all are requested to wear masks at all times and practice social distancing using only pews that are unmarked.

Many of us here today were not raised in The Episcopal Church, but have found in this parish a source of spiritual growth. If you might like to join this congregation or come seeking prayer or guidance, please speak to one of the clergy or call the office at 610-525-2486.

For young children, we offer a worship tote bag filled with materials meant to enhance their sense of worship and help them process new prayers, scriptures and hymns. Pick one up in the narthex.

Restrooms are located through the large wooden door halfway down the left side aisle. Baby changing stations are in the handicap restroom off the left side aisle and in the hallway restroom behind the high altar.

CHURCH SCHOOL AND YOUTH MINISTRIES

Lesson for the Day The Peace

Preschool - Rm 221 (age 3 to Kindergarten)

Throughout the year in Catechesis I, children practice parts of the liturgy in order to prepare them for full participation in worship. Today they will be introduced to the gesture of the Passing of the Peace.

Lower Elementary - Rm 215 (grades 1 to 3)

There is a lot of movement within the liturgy. Each of these movements and gestures serves a particular role. Today we will explore the ways in which the Peace is more than just a way to say hello and shaking hands (in non-Covid times).

Upper Elementary/middle school - Rm 217 (grades 4 thru 7)

We will wrap up our three-part series on Noah and the Flood this week. The children will explore the importance of covenant both in terms of the Noah story and the Biblical narrative as a whole.

Confirmation-Youth Cottage

This week our Confirmation class will continue their exploration of the Nicene Creed. Do we believe all that the Creed affirms? What objections do we have? Is that a problem? Should it be? Join us as we deliberate upon the Creed together.

Redeemer Youth Group-Youth Cottage

RYG will be meeting this Sunday from 4-6 pm. We will start outside playing whiffle ball and will move into the parish house to watch the first half of the Breakfast Club. Please join us!
