

FMC and The Korea Society invites you to a special celebration:

Seismic Shifts in Korean Politics: A Conversation with Rep. Young Kim

Monday, April 4 | 10:00 - 10:40 AM ET

To register for this Zoom Webinar, please use this link here.

Rep. Young Kim (R-CA), Co-Chair, Congressional Study Group on Korea

Rep. Kim serves the 39th Congressional District of California. Before Congress, she was the first Korean-American Republican woman elected to the California State Assembly. She also served as The Hon. Royce's Director of Community Relations and Asian Affairs, where she was a key liaison to 39th District and advisor on issues pertaining to the Asian-American community and foreign policy.

Moderator: The Hon. Peter Roskam (R-IL, 2007-2019)

Peter Roskam, former six-term U.S. Representative from Illinois, provides strategic counsel and guidance as a Partner at Sidley Austin. Peter held many high-level positions in the U.S. House of Representatives during his tenure (2007–2019). In addition to serving in the House Leadership as the Chief Deputy Whip, he chaired three major subcommittees of the House Ways and Means Committee. Peter also served on the House Financial Services Committee. He also co-chaired the Korea Caucus, the India Caucus, the Bipartisan Task Force to Combat Anti-Semitism and the Republican Israel Caucus.

For any questions related to the event, please contact Mr. David Sim at DSim@usafmc.org.