

CHAMBER COUNCIL IMPACT REPORT

Various councils led by dedicated members and carried out by the Chamber ensure Riverside is an economic catalyst for businesses.

AREA BUSINESS COUNCILS

1,015+

homes being constructed helps attract skilled workers. The Councils convene developers and local leaders to ensure the state-mandated process to build 18k homes in the future goes smoothly.

BUSINESS EDUCATION PARTNERSHIP

1,300+

households of high school students conversed with colleges, universities, and local businesses about future career and education pathway options at the virtual Riverside College & Career Fair.

MILITARY AFFAIRS

300

jobs saved from consolidation at Defense Media Activity located at March Air Reserve Base.

MARKETING

12,445

attendees connected through 234 programs by implementing Zoom meetings and breakout rooms.

GOVERNMENTAL AFFAIRS

100+

bills tracked and 35 letters authored to defeat legislation which could have increased costs for businesses.

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

Supported the Van Buren Sewer Project to improve infrastructure to assist future developments and play a critical role in sanitation control and disease prevention.

EASTHILLS BUSINESS COUNCIL

Voted for the adaptive re-use and restoration of the Farmhouse Motel that will bring art, shopping entertainment, and food selections to University Avenue.

HUNTER PARK BUSINESS COUNCIL

Improved access to power for local businesses and residents by securing a second connection to the grid through the Riverside Transmission Reliability Project.

Backed the Northside Neighborhood & Pellissier Ranch Specific Plan to attract amenities, housing, and more to develop this section of Riverside.

