Freedom Awards — San Diego Democratic Club / San Diego Democrats for Equality

Section 1. The Freedom Awards Committee will present a list of candidates to the Executive Board for all awards except the President's Award. The nominated candidates must meet the appropriate criteria:

A. Brad Truax Human Rights Award – This award, considered the Club's highest honor, is presented to an individual who has made sustained and significant contributions toward the advancement of LGBTQ+ rights, at the local, state, or national level. The recipient need not be a Club member.

J. Douglas Scott Award for Political Action – This award is presented to a Club member who demonstrates political action within the LGBTQ+ community and the Democratic Party. The award recognizes political work done within the Party to educate and advance the political agenda of the LGBTQ+ movement and/or work within the community to encourage participation in the Democratic Party and electoral process.

Gloria Johnson Award for Feminist Leadership – This award is presented to an individual or organization who has demonstrated feminist leadership and a positive impact in the LGBTQ+ community and/or the broader community.

Gloria Steinem Award for Communication – This award is presented to an individual or organization who has worked to educate the non-LGBTQ+ community about our needs and create avenues of communication between the two communities.

Eleanor Roosevelt Award for Community Service – This award is presented to an individual or organization who has demonstrated service to the LGBTQ+ community through participation in other organizations and community events.

R. Steven Pope Award for Volunteerism – This award is presented to a Club member who demonstrates outstanding volunteerism within the LGBTQ+ community, the Club, political campaigns, and the Democratic Party. The award recognizes the need to acknowledge volunteers who consistently and selflessly give their time and energy to further the Club’s political agenda.

Christine Kehoe Award for Excellence in Elected or Appointed Office – This award is presented to an individual who has demonstrated excellence through their leadership, and has made a significant, positive impact as an elected official or appointed official.

Larry T. Baza Titan Award for Intersectional Activism and Leadership – This award is presented to an individual or organization who has made a significant, positive impact through their activism and leadership within the LGBTQ+ community in cultural arts, immigrant rights, and/or the Democratic Party.

Robert H. Lynn Founder’s Award for Excellence in Justice – This award is presented to an individual or organization who has demonstrated excellence through their leadership within the LGBTQ+ community, and who has made a significant, positive impact in bringing equality, equity, and justice to others.

Herb King Lifetime Achievement Award – This is a special award (not routinely presented every year) given to a Club member in recognition of many years of extraordinary service to the LGBTQ+ community.
