After Hours Mixer Sponsor-$500

After Hours Mixer Sponsor is given the opportunity to host an event at sponsor's business location or other Chamber approved location. Sponsor is given an opportunity to speak for up to five minutes about their business and may provide marketing and business-related materials to members after receiving Chamber approval. After hours host pays for all food and non-alcohol beverages for guests. An After-Hours Mixer Sponsor may request to have a second Chamber member business co-sponsor the event. Sponsor is responsible for identifying a potential business to co-sponsor. Final approval of co-sponsorship will be determined by the Chamber. If approved, each sponsoring business will pay $400. Sponsoring businesses are given the opportunity to speak about their individual businesses for up to five minutes and may provide marketing and business-related materials at guest tables after receiving Chamber approval. The Kerrville Area Chamber of Commerce has liability coverage, but this does not protect mixer hosts. Please check with your insurance agent for liquor and beer/wine liability coverage. If you do not have coverage, we will happily provide references for one day Special Event policies for your peace of mind.
