

2022 Summer Camps: Oak Park Campus

Experience all Summer has to offer in our unique multicultural, multilingual environment!

Please note that unlike our Academic Program, our summer camps are NOT IMMERSIVE in the target language. As much as possible we will expose students to the target languages but due to staffing constraints, exposure to the desired language may be limited.

Dates	Camps for Early Childhood (Ages 3-6)
June 14-17	Summer Fun Ready for some fun in the sun? For campers who love the outdoors or those who can't wait for warm weather activities, this is a perfect fit! In this program, campers will get to experience and enjoy a variety of outdoor and physical activities to welcome in summer and enjoy the weather.
June 20-24	Nature Explorers Camp (Green Explorers) This week, campers will discover and explore the living world around them. They will understand the vital roles of animals and plants we encounter everyday. Our campers get the chance to hone their gardening skills. Additionally, campers will have the opportunity to travel to Japan for a day to learn and understand more about Japanese Bonsai Trees and they will plant their own seeds to cultivate at home!

June 27 - July 1	Fashion Around the World We all dress every day, but do we ever stop to really think about where these clothes and designs come from and what they show about ourselves and our past? In this camp, we will be learning about clothing styles from all around the world. Campers will explore why people in different countries wear what they wear, including what cultures different articles are derived from.
July 5-8	Math & Movement We all know Mathematics are essential, but how can they be applied in real life? In this camp, we will dive into how Math and Mathematical understanding can be translated to movement. We will give campers the chance to broaden their understanding of mathematical applications in real life with fun and engaging activities and outdoor games.
July 11-15	Instruments Around the World Music is the true Universal Language. During this week of camp, campers will have the opportunity to expand their knowledge of different music from around the world. They will learn about cultural influences on music. Campers will learn new vocabulary while also experiencing the joy of creating and understanding music.
July 18-22	All About Pets Does your camper either want a pet, or want to know how to take better care of one you already have? In this camp, campers will get the opportunity to learn about a variety of pets and what it takes to provide for their unique needs. This is sure to be a great week for all animal lovers!

July 25 - 29	Arts and Crafts Ready to get creative? In this camp, we will be exploring a variety of distinct and unique art forms ranging from sculpture to painting. Campers will even dabble in mixed media!	 a
August 1-5	Story Book Camp If your child can't wait for reading time or loves stories, this is the perfect place. In this camp, students will gain both a broader understanding of story books and their origins, as well as reading time to assist in their comprehension skills.
August 8-12	Animal Planet (Green Explorers) In this camp, we will be exploring and learning about animals from a wide variety of areas and ecosystems! We will travel and experience climates and ecosystems from all over the world, from the bitter arctic to the lush amazon rainforest. We will also be visiting South America to both learn about their tropical rainforests and to organically practice Spanish and expand our vocabulary!
August 15-19	Back to School Fun In this camp, we will prepare for the first week of school with entertaining and engaging games, activities, and more! The focus and primary objective for this camp is to ease the campers back into the school year and re-acclimate students to the classroom environment.
